“The Big Ending!”

The God of the Bible takes evil seriously. It makes Him mad! As any caring Father, it is God’s love for His children that lies at the root of His wrath toward whatever evil forces are arrayed to corrupt and destroy them. If God did not love so much, He would not care. But He does. Scripture tells us that God’s wrath can...

Burn like fire (Psalm 89:46)

Roar like a lion (Proverbs 19:12)

Flow like a flood (Proverbs 27:4)

Make the earth tremble (Jeremiah 10:10)

Swirl like violent wind & fall like hailstones (Ezekiel 13:13)

Feel like a rod (Lamentations 3:1)

Burst out like a storm (Jeremiah 30:23)

Make us drunk (Isaiah 63:6)

Come on the sons of disobedience (Eph. 5:6)

Be stored up for us (Romans 2:5).

Torment like fire and brimstone (Rev. 14:10)

Jesus said, “Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, but whoever rejects the Son will not see life, for God’s wrath remains on him.” (John 3:36). The book of Revelation speaks of men calling on mountains to fall on them to hide them from “the wrath of the Lamb.” (Revelation 6:16). Also, anyone who worships the beast and wears its mark on his forehead “will drink the wine of God’s fury.” (14:10).

Revelation is filled with terrifying visions of judgment. It tells of catastrophes, plagues, bloodshed, earthquakes, locust, fire-breathing horses with serpent tails, a seven-headed dragon, and more. Still, the careful reader never loses sight of God’s grace.

You know how the Bible begins (“In the beginning...”). So, here’s the big ending:

“The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all. Amen.”
~ The Apostle John (Revelation 22:21)
