Time is on Our Side

We have no defense whatsoever against the steady march of time. It is a tireless tyrant and an undefeated foe. Without a hope that transcends time, we are goners.

The essence of Christianity is that we look to Jesus for a hope beyond time. It is not a hope conjured up to appease our anxieties, but rather, a hope we inherit.

“Inheritance” is one of the most important words in the Bible. Jesus explained His kingdom priorities using financial terms like “inheritance”, “treasure”, “profit” (“What does it profit a man...?”), and so on. His point was that worldly finances (or values) do not begin to measure up to the value of our inheritance as God’s children.

The apostle Paul spoke of giving thanks to the Father who qualifies His children “to share in the inheritance of the saints in Light.” (Colossians 1:12). Paul also saw the Holy Spirit as a “deposit” who guarantees our inheritance (Ephesians 1:14). In short, He enables us to live with the assurance that time is on our side.

The apostle Peter wrote of a “living hope,” rooted in the resurrection of Jesus, into which we are re-born to obtain an “inheritance” that will never perish, spoil or fade. It is being kept in heaven for us (1 Peter 1:3-4), and heaven is timeless!

WARNING! This priceless imperishable inheritance comes with serious terms that we must not ignore. Paul wrote, “No immoral, impure or greedy person... has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.” (Ephesians 5:5). Ouch!

Clearly, time is not our greatest enemy. Sin is. The good news is that there is still time to repent and seek God’s forgiveness through Jesus. So just for now, time is on our side!
